The nanomedTAB – Nanomedicine Translation Advisory Board (www.nanomedtab.eu) is a free-of-charge mentoring program to assess, advise and accelerate promising nanomedicine projects to the market, based on the diverse experience of outstanding industry experts, <http://nanomedtab.eu/index.php#experts>

The fifth edition of applications is now open until the 3rd of April 2017, to companies and public and private research entities. Selected projects will be invited to attend the TAB-In Sessions, a series of face-to-face meetings with experts, on the 31st of May 2017.

Applications can be submitted at <http://nanomedtab.eu/?apply>
